

'Twas the Night Before Light-Up

*'Twas the night before Light-up;
And all through the town;
The thoughts of the people
Were festival-bound.*

*The decorations were hung;
All covered in lights;
Just waiting for the start
Of Franklin's big night!*

*The day held great promise;
With special sales and offers;
On gifts and antiques;
Sure to please all the shoppers.*

*All the fine restaurants
would serve up great fare;
Hot cocoa & chili
would also be there.*

*Come 6 PM,
on November 22nd;
Liberty Street would transform from plain street to decadent!*

*The main route through town;
would attain grand, new heights;
with floats and parade entries;
made of hundreds of lights.*

*The folks in the crowd;
would be waiting to see;
Santa on a fire truck;
shouting with glee.*

*The Madrigal Singers, their sweet carols amassed;
bringing back memories;
of Christmases past.*

*And last, but not least;
For our special night;
Would be a sparkling show;
Of shock, awe, and light!*

*The fireworks display;
Beautiful as can be;
As art fills the sky;

*So make plans to attend;
as we kick off the season;
in quaint, downtown Franklin;
And here's one more reason:*

*Light-Up Night festivities;
are special and fun;
for friendship and laughter;
For each and everyone!*
